

myUemis / uemis DiveWorld synchronize or edit your data with a PC, USB connection and internet access

Data Exchange dive spots and contacts, ...

... share dives ...

... use your own DiveWorld picture galleries and copy contacts/buddies into your database

Share your data – with your friends, regardless where they are on the globe myUemis – Your personal database for: dives, dive spots, contacts/buddies, checklists, education, medical information checkup, etc.

Synchronisation & Software Update via Internet – PC with any operating system / USB- and internet-connection / Java and browser installed

uemis ZURICH*

Power Supply – Battery: lithium-polymer type / Charging: via USB from PC, via USB with uemis Travel Charger, extend the running time with the integrated solar cell

Uemis Tank Pressure Transmitter – Operating conditions: for all Gas mixes / Data: tank pressure, battery level / maximum operating pressure: 350 bar (5'000 psi) / maximum 3 transmitters

Future Modules with bi-directional communication

Buddy Display – Recognizes up to 6 other SDA's / Displays buddy name, gas mix used, tank pressure, remaining gas time [RGT], no stop time or decompression time and warnings

Reference: www.uemis.com / www.uemis.org / Uemis Ltd., Switzerland

*SDA stands for „Scuba Diver Assistant“, an evolution of the dive computer. The uemis ZURICH forms an ad-hoc network with other SDA's, tank pressure transmitters and future modules. After the dive, the SDA can exchange its data with the internet for further editing and evaluation. The data can be shared with friends. A Swiss Made product, developed by specialists and divers.